Ivory brings happiness to the less fortunate

IN this holy month of Ramadhan, Ivorycares and Penang Times Square brought joy to the less fortunate families once again.

Themed 'Jom Berbuka Puasa', members from 17 less fortunate families in Penang were beaming with excitement when they were treated with fine delicacies of Ramadhan buffet at the Masjid Kampung Jawa Baru here.

Joining the families were Muslim employees of Ivory Properties Group Berhad and Penang Times Square as well as Ivorycares volunteers.

Apart from enjoying the great pleasantries from volunteers and staff members, each family received two goody bags containing daily essential items, a Hari Raya hamper and an RM50 green packet..

The families also received boxes containing used clothes that are still in good condition.

All contributions were courtesy from caring employees who have earlier donated their shares, be it in cash or kind.

Ivorycares president Datuk Ooi Chin Loo, who is also the Group executive director, said they were honored to have the families once again this Ramadhan.

"This holy occasion has been a yearly tradition for Ivory to cheer the families up with the least we can.

"This is not only an event about giving joy to the families but to show the value of caring and sharing towards the society apart from our work commitments.

"I am proud to see Ivorians working together to spread the Ramadhan spirit of sharing and giving," he said after presenting the items to the family members. Also joining in the breaking of fast and dinner with the families were philanthropist Datuk Seri Nazir Ariff and Penang Times Square general manager C C Yeap.
