Ramadan cheer with 10 families

A group of volunteers from Ivorycares took the opportunity to treat 10 less fortunate families with fine delicacies during a Ramadan buffet at Masjid Kampung Jawa Baru here.

The charitable arm of Ivory Properties Group Berhad (IPGB), in collaboration with Penang Times Square shopping complex management team also distributed goodie bags comprising daily essential items and festive delicacies as well as green packets to each family.

Among the items presented during the event on Friday (July 10) were kuih raya, sugar, rice, flour, condensed milk, chocolate, instant noodles, biscuits and others.

All contributions are collected from caring employees who donated their shares, be it in cash or kind.

Ivorycares president Datuk Ooi Chin Loo, who is also the Group's executive director, said it has been a tradition for the company to hold such function at the mosque yearly and were honored to have the families once again this Ramadan.

"This is a platform to show the value of caring and sharing towards the society apart from our other charitable commitments for the less fortunate.

"I am happy to see Ivorians coming together to spread the Ramadan spirit of sharing and giving," he said after the hamper presentation ceremony at the mosque in Jalan Kampung Jawa Baru.

Some 10 Muslim employees from Ivory Properties Group Berhad and Penang Times Square also participated in the breaking fast.

Also present were Penang Times Square general manager C C Yeap, deputy general manager Ang Kung San and philanthropist Datuk Seri Nazir Ariff.
