RAMADHAN KONGSI-KONGSI BY IVORYCARES

GEORGETOWN: Ivorycares, a charity arm under Ivory Properties Group Berhad celebrated fast-breaking with 20 less fortunate families at Birch the Plaza community hall, Penang Times Square recently.

The Ivorian Iftar event was co-organized with Penang Times Square's management team and Ivory Properties Group Auxiliary Police force.

Each family received a green packet and goodies bag containing daily essential goods such as rice, sugar, salt, malt drinks, flour, cooking oil, noodles, biscuits and more.

The company's generous employees contributed in terms of cash or kind which were collected prior to the event on June 9, 2017.

Ivorycares president Dato' Ooi Chin Loo said he believed that philanthropy and charitable activities hold a very central place in the teachings of any religion.

"Helping the underprivileged is one of the values that we want to educate the younger generation as we are advocating our employees to be more caring towards the community," he added.

"We hope this noble initiative will ease the burden of those in need and benefit them in many other ways," said Ivorycares vice president Winnie Yeoh after the presentation ceremony at the community hall.

The Muslim employees from Ivory Properties Group, Penang Times Square management and auxiliary police force also broke fast alongside the participating family members.
