Chap Goh Meh reunion with elders

SENIOR citizens, single mothers and children from the homes were all smiles at the Chap Goh Meh Charity Reunion Lunch in Penang Times Square here.

Jointly organised by Penang Times Square and Ivorycares, a charitable arm of Ivory Properties Group Berhad, some 100 senior citizens, single mothers and children celebrated a warm Chap Goh Meh a day earlier.

Sponsored by Ah Keat Seafood Restaurant, the group from Bethel Home, Rumah Charis, Rumah Orang Tua Uzur Penang, Eternal Home, Aspire Nursing Home and Women's Centre for Change Penang was treated to a sumptuous lunch comprising six dishes and soup.

Ivory Properties Group Berhad executive director and Ivorycares president Datuk Ooi Chin Loo said they hoped to share the joy with the group since Chap Goh Meh is a meaningful celebration for the Chinese tradition.

"We want the elders, single mothers and children to be as happy as others do as they too deserved to feel the love and not being left out," he said during the event.

Also present to grace the event were Penang Health, Welfare, Caring Society and Environment committee chairman Phee Boon Poh, Komtar assemblyman Ng Wei Aik, Ivory Properties Group Berhad chief operating officer Goh Chin Heng and Penang Times Square general manager C C Yeap.

The event kicked off with a lion dance performance followed by a series of dance and singing performances.

There was also a special appearance by the God of Prosperity before the VIPs and sponsors went around distributing goodie bags, mandarin oranges and red packets to the senior citizens, single mothers and children to wish them good luck, good health and good fortune.

A wishing pool was also set up next to the stage for public to throw their mandarin oranges into.

Proceeds collected would then be channeled to Ivorycares to fund its operations cost for future charitable activities.

Ghee Hiang Manufacturing Co. Sdn. Bhd., the event main sponsor, donated their pastry products.

Other sponsors were Julie's Biscuit, Keluarga Chocolate Malt, Rythams Service Sdn Bhd and 03 Media Sdn. Bhd.

Ends.
