CHEERFUL RAMADAN BY IVORYCARES

GEORGETOWN: Ivory Properties Group Berhad, through its charitable arm Ivorycares hosted a buka puasa treat with the qaryah of Masjid Kampung Jawa Baru here.

The initiative called Salam Ramadan was carried out in collaboration with Penang Times Square's shopping complex management team.

Ivorycares also distributed green packets and distributed goodie bags and hampers consisting of daily essential items to 10 less fortunate families.

Among the items presented during the event, were rice, sugar, salt, chocolate, flour, cooking oil, noodles, biscuits and more.

The contributions are collected from the group's caring employees who donated their shares, be it in cash or kind.

Ivorycares president Dato' Ooi Chin Loo, who is also the group's executive director, said it is an honour to keep the traditions in organising a cheerful function at the mosque yearly as to share festive joy with the families.

"This shows the value of caring and sharing towards the society apart from our other charitable commitments for the less fortunate."

"I hope this initiative helps the families especially for the upcoming Hari Raya Aidilfitri," he said after the hamper presentation ceremony at the mosque in Jalan Kampung Jawa Baru.

The Muslim employees from Ivory Properties Group Berhad and Penang Times Square also participated for iftar sessions.
