IVORY celebrates Chinese New Year with appreciation and joy

GEORGE TOWN: The management and staff members of Ivory Properties Group Berhad greeted the Lunar Year of the Dog with an auspicious lion dance ceremony.

Gathered at the Group's headquarters on Feb 19, loud cheering employees accompanied the energetic lion dance performance on the first day back to work after the Chinese New Year holiday.

The lion dance is believed to attract good luck and fortune while warding off bad spirits for the entire year.

Group chief executive officer Dato' Low Eng Hock took the opportunity to announce that the company is geared up for an eventful year with several projects under planning in Klang Valley and Penang island.

Low also mentioned that phase three of the iconic Penang Times Square, The Wave is anticipated to be completed in 2019.

Meanwhile, Tropicana Bay Residences at Penang WorldCity in Batu Mutiara has received its CCC (Certificate of completion and compliance) last September and handing over of the keys to the owners are in schedule.

Introducing the new Lifestyle Card for its customers, Low expressed, "We want to provide a more special, beneficial, and comprehensive benefits to our purchasers. The new Lifestyle Card can be used in many different outlets to enjoy special discounts and privileges."

Also present to grace the auspicious ceremony were independent non-executive director Loh Chye Teik, deputy chief operating officer Yeong Siew Yan, personal assistant to group CEO (business development) Ken Chan, relationship director Ang Kung San, chief development officer Ben Wong, and Ivory Associates director Ron Loh.

"It was a fruitful year looking back at 2017. I'm thankful to all my staff for their hard work and diligence as well as the public for their enthusiastic support," he added.

Low hoped that by striving harder with a never-give-up attitude and accepting new challenges, 2018 will see the Group achieving greater milestone.

Besides that, Ivory has an on-going Chinese New Year Roadshow from 16 to 25 February at Gurney Plaza, Ivory Tower at Penang Times Square and Penang WorldCity Sales Gallery. The company is offering a discount of up to 20% for selected projects.

The roadshow will prominently feature its award-winning projects City Residence in Tanjong Tokong and Penang WorldCity in Bayan Mutiara.

Also, up for grabs are the best-buy commercial units at The Latitude and The Peak Residences at Mount Erskine, which are currently receiving positive responses from property buyers.
