

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FEB 10, 2016

Ivory Properties welcomes the Year of the Monkey

The management and staff of Ivory Properties Group Berhad welcomed the Lunar Year of the Monkey together with an auspicious lion dance ceremony.

In keeping with its annual Chinese New Year tradition, the lion dance performance was held at Ivory Properties again this year to bring good fortune and prosperity.

The staff gathered at the group's headquarters, the Ivory Tower, to witness the performance on Wednesday (10/2), their first day back to work after the weekend holiday.

Group chief executive officer Datuk Low Eng Hock commended the employees for their diligence at work, and enthusiastic support and participation in company events.

"I hope they will redouble their efforts and keep accepting new challenges for the company to scale to new heights," he said.

Also present at the ceremony were group executive director Datuk Ooi Chin Loo, group chief operating officer Goh Chin Heng, group deputy chief operating officer Yeong Siew Yan and Ivory Properties director Ron Loh.

Low added that they plan to collaborate with more businesses especially from the hotel and F&B industries, for the Ivory Privilege Card programme.

"We want to provide a more meticulous, thoughtful and comprehensive service to the cardholders," he said.

He said the card, which comes in three categories – diamond, platinum and gold – offers members a range of attractive benefits.

Ivory Properties will also hold property roadshows at M Mall O2O at Penang Times Square, Ivory Tower and Gurney Plaza from Feb 8 to 14 where purchasers will receive a cash award of RM28,888.

Meanwhile, there will be also be lion dance performances at Soju Penang and Soju Bar Pavilion in Kuala Lumpur on Feb 10 at midnight, and at M Mall O2O, Penang Times Square on Feb 12 at 10am.

For more information, call 04-210 8000 or 04-373 0378.

Ends