IVORYCARES BRINGS FOOD AND FUN TO SPECIAL NEEDS FOLKS

GEORGE TOWN: Over 20 residents of the Eden Handicap Service Centre were treated to delicious food and an afternoon of fun in conjunction with World Children's Day.

Organised by Ivorycares, the charitable arm of Ivory Properties Group Berhad, the event was held at the centre's premises in Green Lane on Nov 11.

Held for the first time by Ivorycares with the centre, the event featured games, dancing and song performances by volunteers.

The singing performances were put on by Ivorycares volunteer Yee Lai Xuan, who was the vocalist, along with other volunteers Yew Kim Hooi on the guitar and Clarence Ewe on the cajón (a box-shaped percussion instrument).

As they performed five songs in English and Mandarin – including Lemon Tree by Fool's Garden, The Show by Lenka and Xiao Ping Guo (Little Apple) – the residents promptly clapped and danced enthusiastically to the beat.

They even requested for the Gangnam Style song to dance along to it.

The residents were each treated to a hot Marrybrown meal and received balloons from the volunteers.

Separately, the public is invited to participate in the Make Your Wish Come True programme jointly organised by Ivorycares and MBI Group.

Held until Nov 30, 2016, the programme encourages the public to be a Secret Santa to more than a thousand underprivileged children this Christmas.

Pick a wishing card from the Christmas tree at M Mall O2O in Penang, and grant their wish with a donation or buy them the present.

For details, visit Ivorycares Penang on Facebook or call Pinkee at 04-210 8000 ext. 817.
