

Shoppers taking photos at the village-themed festive setup at the main atrium of 1st Avenue Mall in George Town. – Photos: GOH GAIK LEE, CHAN BOON KAI and G.C. TAN/The Star

All decked out for festive revelry

WITH Chinese New Year celebrations just days away, public places all over the country have amped up their decorations.

A golden rooster made of fine river sand by sand art sculptor Mohammad Ikhwan Ibrahim, 27, is on display at the lobby area of Chief Minister Lim Guan Eng's office in Komtar.

Rows of lanterns and cherry blossoms adorn the main entrance of M Mall O2O at Penang Times Square.

There is a golden rooster spotted sitting atop gold ingots outside Gama Supermarket and Departmental Store while prosperity-themed decorations with a water feature, cherry blossom trees and other plants take centre stage at Hotel Jen Penang's lobby.

At 1st Avenue Mall, people can be seen taking pictures with the decorations featuring a bridge over a pond, cherry blossom trees and a gazebo imitating a village in China at the main atrium.

Mall patrons are also spotted taking selfies with the red and gold-themed Chinese New Year decoration at the central atrium in Aman Central Mall, Alor Setar, Kedah.

Rows of lanterns and cherry blossoms adorn the main entrance of M Mall O2O at Penang Times Square. (Below) Mohammad Ikhwan putting finishing touches to his creation which is on display at the lobby area of the chief minister's office in Komtar.

